

WEB USAGE POLICY FOR QUANTAZIS TRADEMARKS AND COPYRIGHTED MATERIALS

Purpose

This web usage policy of Quantazis Technologies Pvt. Ltd. sets forth guidelines particular to conduct on the Internet to help you avoid infringement of Quantazis copyrights and trademarks rights. This policy, in addition to all other Quantazis trademark and copyright policies, is subject to change at any time and without notice

Introduction

The Internet has vastly expanded our ability to exchange information in a virtually unrestricted manner; however, it has also introduced new means by which intellectual property may be exploited and infringed. This document outlines the best way to freely exchange information via the Internet while ensuring adequate protection for all the components of the Quantazis brand, including Quantazis logos, trademarks, service marks, and copyrighted materials.

Linking

- Do not use a hyperlink or deeplink (bypasses homepage and brings user directly to an interior page) to present work created by Quantazis as your own; no links should cause confusion or imply that you are affiliated with, or sponsored or endorsed by Quantazis.
- Do not use a hyperlink or deeplink to violate the rights of any person or entity, including to defame, disparage, or harm the reputation of Quantazis, its employees, partners, vendors, or other related companies.
- Do link to the Quantazis homepage or interior pages using hypertext.
- Do hyperlink to the Quantazis homepage as long as you clearly indicate that the end user will exit your website and enter the Quantazis homepage.
- Do deeplink only when there is a requirement for information about Quantazis products, programs, or technologies. You must also clearly indicate that the end user will exit your website and enter a Quantazis website.

Framing

Do not frame any Quantazis website, webpage or content. (Framing is an alternative form of linking that allows an end user to view a linked webpage within a “frame” in the original website.)

Meta-tag

Unless specifically authorized by Quantazis, do not use Quantazis or Quantazis trademarks in the meta-tags of your website. (A meta-tag is an HTML tag that provides information about the webpage and allows search engines to index content more effectively.)

Domain Name

Do not use Quantazis or any other Quantazis trademarks as all or part of a domain name. Examples of inappropriate domain names include www.quantaziservices.com, www.quantazis.in, www.quantaziscompany.com. Please refer to the "Trademarks" section at the bottom of any quantazis.com webpage for a complete listing of Quantazis trademarks.

Re-Hosting

Do not re-host any Quantazis webpages, applications, or content without written permission from Quantazis. (Re-hosting is presenting a copy of Quantazis webpages and having that copy reside on your server.) Re-hosting is considered to be improper reproduction of Quantazis copyrighted materials.

Derivative Work

Unless expressly authorized by Quantazis do not create new content based on any Quantazis copyrighted content. It is considered derivative work if your work is based on the modification or adaptation of Quantazis webpage content, graphical design, illustration, color scheme, visual appearance, or any other original work created by Quantazis.

Trademarks

Do not use any Quantazis trademarks such as the Quantazis logo on your website unless you have written permission from Quantazis. Do not display any Quantazis trademarks prominently or as the visual focal point of your web materials.
